

Sample Higher Education and Humanities Professionals Landmarks of American History and Culture
Residential format schedule

(Required Attachment 2)

The same schedule would be followed for both weeks of the program.

*Guiding questions, topics and themes, readings/resources, and learning objectives for each day are identified in the application narrative, “Program of Study” section.

Times	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
8:00am	Participants arrive and check-in throughout the day	Coffee and tea available	Breakfast on your own	Coffee and tea available	8:00-9:00am Bus travel to museum and memorial sites; light snacks provided on bus	Breakfast on your own	Participants check-out and depart
9:00am		8:30-10am Large and small group discussion: “Place, history, culture and your work in the humanities” (participants will upload their own scholarship or readings/resources they recommend to the Google folder)	8:30-9:30am Discuss readings and compelling questions (Project Co-Directors)	8:30-9:45am “Complicating the Story” with invited scholar Jasmine Greggs	9:00-10:00am Presentation by museum curators and education staff in museum learning center	9:00-10:00am Discuss readings and compelling questions by Project Co-Directors
10:00am		10-10:15am: BREAK	9:30-11:00am “Experiential learning with the community” presented by invited scholar Lisa Doobins	9:45-10:00am BREAK and board bus
				10:00-10:30am Travel to site visits via bus; light snacks provided

11:00am		10:15-11:30: “Theorizing and Studying Place” with invited scholar Dr. Colleen Downie	11:00-11:15am BREAK	1030am-12:30pm Tour church, cemetery, and monuments with local historian Mila Kaut	with museum staff 11:30-1:00pm Lunch on your own in area or at museum cafe	documentary filmmaker Luke Miller
Noon		11:30am-1:00pm Lunch on your own	11:15am-12:15pm Panel of local community members to prepare for afternoon walking tour			11:30-11:45am BREAK	11:45-12:30pm Small group discussion about syllabi/ educational materials
1:00pm		1:00-2:30pm Place-based teaching & learning presentation by Leslie Adams and small group discussions about application in classroom or	12:15-1:30pm Lunch with panelists (boxed lunches provided)	12:30-1:45pm Lunch at the church hall (boxed lunches provided)	12:30-1:30pm Lunch on your own
			1:30-3:00pm Neighborhood walking tour in small groups with community members	1:45-2:00pm Travel to local historical society and historic home	1:00-1:15pm Meet at museum entrance, walk to historic memorial park
					1:15-2:30pm Tour sites with National Park Service Ranger	1:45-2:00pm Travel by bus to historic site

2:00pm		work environment		2:00-3:00pm Tour home and archives on your own		2:00-3:30pm Welcome in visitor center meeting room and tour by executive director Silas Murray
		2:30-2:45pm: BREAK and board bus			2:30-2:40pm BREAK
		2:45-3:00pm: Travel to museum			2:40-3:30pm Bus meets group at park to return to host site.
3:00pm		3:00-4:30pm: Museum tour with Meredith Garcia, Museum Education staff	3:00-3:15pm Meet at Community Center; refreshments provided	3:00-3:10pm Break and gather in on-site meeting space		Participants discuss site tour; light snacks provided
			3:15-4:30pm Designing experiential learning activities with community members, facilitated by Director of the Center for Teaching, Greg Bell	3:10-4:00pm Small group discussions with co-project directors and historical society staff about the day's sites and topics	3:30-4:15pm "Teaching and researching with monuments, murals, and memorials" led by invited scholar Isaiah Tyke	3:30-4:30pm Lecture by Professor Danielle Fellows on contemporary arguments and issues

4:00pm		4:30-5:00pm: Group discussion with Head Curator, Jessica Daniels	4:30-5:00pm Individual work on designing experiential learning for your educational setting	4:30-5:30pm “Teaching and researching with digital maps” led by project team and Andrew Simmons	4:15-5:00pm Research and teaching session with project team	4:30-4:45pm Travel by bus to host site 4:45-5:00pm BREAK
5:00pm		5:00-5:15pm Bus trip back to host site	5:00-5:30pm Small group discussions about experiential learning planning		5:00-5:30pm Overview of questions, reflections, tomorrow’s schedule, and readings to be discussed (Project Co-Directors)	5:00-5:30pm Complete workshop evaluations
		5:15-6:15pm Working with GIS and digital maps, presented by digital historian Andrew Simmons	5:30pm-6:00pm Overview of questions, reflections, tomorrow’s schedule (Project Co-Directors)	5:30-6:00pm Overview of questions, reflections, tomorrow’s schedule (Project Co-Directors)		5:30-6:30pm Closing large group discussion about the week, distribute NEH certificates, reminder about how stipends will be paid (Project Co-Directors)
6:00pm	6:00-8:00pm Welcome event on campus; overview of the week’s agenda; refreshments sponsored by host site	6:15-6:30pm Overview of questions, reflections, tomorrow’s schedule, and readings to be discussed (Project Co-Directors)	Sessions for the day end. Dinner on your own since we will be in the downtown area.	Sessions for the day end. Dinner on your own or join group at local restaurant.	Sessions for the day end. Dinner on your own.

		Sessions for the day end. Dinner as a group or on your own.				Sessions for the week complete. Dinner on your own or join group at local restaurant.	